Nederland Community Library District - Policy

Approved by the Board of Trustees on January 26th, 2011.

Community Room Policy

1.0 Purpose:

The Nederland Community library has a community room available for use. Its use is to be consistent with the library’s mission, including promoting literacy and strengthening our community through education, self-improvement, cultural and charitable events, business meetings, civic undertakings, and the free expression of all points of view.

The Nederland Community Library District is a governmental entity and as such, all activities conducted in the community room shall be done in accordance with all applicable laws and shall be conducted on an equal opportunity basis.

Commercial use for the purpose of sales or solicitation is not permitted.

3.0 Policy:

Rules of Use
We welcome individuals and groups to use the facility, with the following conditions:

- No products or services may be advertised, solicited or sold, with the exception of books and other resources sold at library sponsored or related events.
- No fundraising programs may be held in the community room except for library sponsored events, such as the Friends of the Library book sales.
- Fees to cover the cost of study materials used in classes, workshops, conferences and similar events can be collected by non-profit and governmental organizations; however, the purchase of study materials may not be a requirement for attendance and/or registration. Permission must be obtained in advance through library management.
- The community room must be reserved by adults 18 years old or older.
- Juvenile groups (18 and under) must have an adult sponsor who will be present during the use of the room.
- Children must be supervised at all times by adults in their care.
- The Library is not responsible for any equipment, supplies, materials, clothing or other items brought into the library or community rooms by individuals sponsoring or attending the meeting.
- Use of the community room by outside groups does not constitute the Library’s sponsorship or endorsement of viewpoints expressed by participants in programs. Groups may not imply that the Library sponsors their meeting. Publication of misleading notices and advertisements will be considered a violation of these rules and future use may be denied. The Library phone number may not be given for contact purposes without prior approval.

The following statement is to be included on any/all promotional materials, including, but not limited to signs/posters, flyers/mailings, press releases, online promotions, etc.: [Event] is funded and presented by [organization/individual] and is not sponsored by Nederland Community Library. For more information, please contact [insert your contact name and phone number]; do NOT include library contact information.

- Library personnel have free access to enter the community room at any time.
• Library sponsored and co-sponsored programming and activities will have first priority in scheduling room use.
• Individual use. There are some activities – such as a Skype job interview – where individual booking and use of the room is allowed. These will be evaluated on a case by case basis.
• By signing the application, user(s) accept responsibility and agree to pay for all damages or losses incurred to the Library's community room or its contents as well as the cost of excessive clean up.
• Alcoholic beverages are not permitted anywhere in the facility or on Library property except at special events hosted by the NCL Foundation, Friends of the Library groups, or any library-related organizations or associations. The necessary permits as well as written permission to serve alcoholic beverages at special events must be obtained in advance.
• Simple refreshments may be served. All food or drink must be kept within the community room. The group using the community room is responsible for all set-up and clean-up, which must take place during the time frame for which the room is reserved.
• Movies shown, or recordings played, must have the appropriate public performance rights. Obtaining the license and all applicable fees are the responsibility of the group (if it is not covered by the library’s permit). Proof of public performance rights shall be provided prior to the event date.
• Use for non-library sponsored will be limited to twice per month.
• All Library rules and guidelines apply to use of the community room. Use of the premises may be terminated at any time if the conduct of the group, or any member of the group violates any of the Library’s rules and guidelines.
• If permission for the use of the community room is denied, the applicant may appeal to the Library Director in writing. If that appeal is denied and the applicant is dissatisfied with the reasons offered, the applicant may appeal to the Library Board during a regularly scheduled Board meeting.
• The Library reserves the right to cancel programs as needed for any weather, health, or safety related issue.

Fees
There is no fee for use by local non-profit groups or clubs. Non-profits and clubs may be required to show proof of non-profit (tax-exempt) status. A deposit and/or cleaning fee may be required.

Reservation and Scheduling
Community room applications are available online or at the library. Reservations may currently be made by telephone or in person and are on a first-come, first-served basis. However, the Library may preempt any meeting when warranted. Reservations are considered tentative until the application and the reservation are confirmed. Groups should notify the facility at least 24 hours in advance if they cancel. If a group has not arrived or called library staff to report a delay within 15 minutes after the scheduled time, the staff may allow others to use the room.

Liability
The person or organization using the community room accepts full liability for any losses or damage that may occur to library facilities or equipment while in use by said person or organization. The person or organization fully releases and discharges the Nederland Community Library, the Library Board of Trustees, its directors, employees, and agents from any and all claims for injuries, including death, and/or property damage and any other damages or losses which may arise or which may be alleged to have arisen out of, or in connection with the meeting.

This policy is subject to change periodically.
